

World Bank - Icare (2000 – 2001)

The project consisted in the elaboration of a critical taxonomy of funding mechanisms for cultural investments; analysis of their impact upon the degree of sustainability of cultural projects; examination of thirty case studies from various areas, typology, ownership, management and financing. It ended up with the realisation of a Report and Guidelines for projecting, financing, realising and monitoring culture-based projects.