

ITEMS - Innovative Teaching for European Museum Strategies is a Lifelong Learning Programme - Leonardo da Vinci learning partnership. It is meant to spread knowledge and expertise in the field of art education especially with regards to the cooperation between secondary schools and museum institutions. A special attention is given to the potential of new technologies in school and museum education.

The project started in 2010 and ended in September 2012.

Partners of the project were:

ANISA - Per l'educazione all'arte&nbsp;&nbsp;Associazione Nazionale Insegnanti di Storia dell'Arte ; ECCOM

;

Moholy-Nagy University of Art and Design \(MOME\)

;

Biedrība Mākslas izglītības centrs TRĪS KRĀSAS

;

Associaçao de Professores de Expressao e Comunicacao Visual \(APECV\)

;

Université du Luxembourg; Institut national d'histoire de l'art \(INHA\).